Greetings,

It's been a long week - get out and enjoy the summer weather! Thursday, June 21st is the longest sunlight day of the year - Summer Solstice! The bad news - our days start getting shorter after that!

Second half property tax bills have been mailed out. Tax bill payments are due to the treasurer by Friday, July 13.

Hope you have an outstanding week!

Mike Kovack

Rest is not idleness, and to lie sometimes on the grass under trees on a summer's day, listening to the murmur of the water, or watching the clouds float across the sky, is by no means a waste of time.

Scouts donate pet oxygen masks to BHFD

BRUNSWICK HILLS -
Thanks to Brunswick
Girl Scout Troop 900750, every township fire truck is now equipped with pet
oxygen masks.

The troop donated 2
pet oxygen mask kits
to the Brunswick Hills Fire Department as part of the May 22
trustee meeting.

Each of the kits
contains a small,
medium, and large
mask to be used on canines or felines.

"I was so proud of the girls for their hard work and dedication to selling enough cookies
to be able to donate
two kits," said Troop
Leader Michelle Hellickson. "They want to make sure that our Fire Department has
the tools necessary to help everyone, even
our four legged family
members."

Buckeye students rock bullying by paying it forward

More and more Buckeye students are standing together against bullying.

Stand By Me Ohio is open to all Buckeye students in grades seven through 12 and is free to join. Twenty-one students participated in its summer leadership retreat on Friday.

"This is my first time at the retreat, but I got in the club last year - eighth grade," Buckeye High School freshman Ben Barnes said. "I can see myself helping other people and so I thought this is something right (for me)."

Stand By Me Ohio is a student-led effort for inclusion that was started by former Buckeye Junior High School counselor Theresa Farelo when she was tasked with organizing an anti-bullying campaign.

MEDINA - Those driving around Medina over the coming weeks will likely have trouble avoiding road closures and construction as several projects will be ongoing in the area at once.

"I'm not going to sugarcoat it. It's going to be a frustrating summer," said City Engineer Pat Patton.

On June 6, Guilford Boulevard south of Smith Road closed for nine weeks in order to replace the bridge located near Roscoe Ewing Park. On June 18, East Smith Road just south of Public Square between South Court and South Jefferson Street will close for about five weeks in order to replace the pavement, water lines and sewers.

The Guilford and East Smith projects are located near elementary schools and city officials said previously they wanted to complete them while students were on

Ground broken for Lafayette fire station

Township trustees and members of the township fire department gathered Saturday at 6367 Technology Lane to break ground for the new safety services/fire station.

Trustee Lynda Bowers said planning began "intensely, on this facility" in Innovation Park about 2½ years ago.

"Our current facility has a crumbling foundation. It's got a bad roof. It's got no restroom facilities. It's got no washing facilities. ... It violates every fire code and every building code," Bowers said.

The new station is being funded with revenue from a 2.5-mill levy voters approved in
